High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents below to prove that the student completed high school before enrolling at Manhattan College:

- ◆ A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- ◆ A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded
- ◆ A copy of the student's General Education Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- ◆ An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- ◆ If State law requires a home schooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- ◆ If State law does not require a home schooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent) a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a home school setting.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact our office.
