What is DegreeWorks?

DegreeWorks is a web-based, degree-auditing and tracking tool that enables students and advisors to evaluate academic progress towards graduation in accordance to major requirements outlined in the College Catalog.

Getting Started- How to Access Degree Works

1. Go to selfservice.manhattan.edu and login with your JasperNet credentials (@manhattan.edu email)
2. In the upper left hand corner select this icon, , and then select “Banner”
3. From there, select the “Student” tab on the menu.
4. Next, select the “Student Profile (9x)” tab.
5. Your student profile will appear. On the left-hand side of the screen select the “DegreeWorks” link.

Blocks

Each section of the DegreeWorks worksheet is called a Block. The block header will have a title, GPA, Credits Required and Credits Applied. This information will be specific to the program that you are enrolled in. Pictured below are the common types of blocks you will see on your worksheet.

Completed Degree Block- This will contain the requirements needed to complete your degree. If all of your requirements are fulfilled, the degree block will show the word “Complete” in green text with a green box around it.

Master of Science

COMPLETE

Credits required: 33 Credits applied: 33 Catalog year: 2021-2022 GPA: 4.00

*Please note: For Students in The Kakos School of Science and School of Liberal Arts this block will only populate when you take a course that is counted as an elective. It is imperative to look at the total amount of credits that are needed on the degree block and count the number of credits that are required for each block. If the total for each block does not add up to the total on the degree block, that means you are missing electives

“What If” Tool

This feature will allow you to hypothetically change your program major. The “What If” audit will show you the following:

1. What coursework is required for the program major.
2. Courses that you have already taken that will satisfy requirements
3. What courses you will still need to take

To use the “What If” tool click on the “What If” tab next to the “Academic” tab in your degree progress box.
